Consent to the Use and Disclosure of Member Information

The recently enacted provincial Personal Information Protection Act and federal Personal Information and Enforcement Act require that organizations obtain consent in order to collect, use and disclose personal information. This includes the type of information the Home Builders' Association currently publishes in membership directories and website membership listings.

In the interest of protecting your privacy, we ask that you read and sign the following agreement, indicating whether you consent to our collection, use and disclosure of your personal information, for the purposes stated. Please fax the completed form to the Grande Prairie Home Builders' Association at 780-513-4459.

“It is the mandate of the Canadian Home Builders' Association at all levels (local, provincial, and national) to provide information, promote membership, and foster communication. Some ways in which we do this are by publishing membership directories, member information catalogues, website membership listings and by providing you with information about new products and services, etc. By signing below, you are indicating whether you consent to the Canadian Home Builders' Association's collection, use and disclosure of your personal information (excluding your banking and credit card information), as contained in our membership records, for the purposes stated above.

_____ I consent to the collection, use and disclosure of my personal information for the purposes stated above.

_____ I do not consent to the collection, use and disclosure of my personal information for the purposes stated above.
